

Kirby Gomez

Kirby Gomez is an up and coming Mexican American artist that has gained popularity amongst the ladies as an Urban Pop, and R&B singer. The Atlanta native currently has two hit singles with Atlantic Records recording artist Kap G (DAF & Aint Use To). He states, "Our record, Aint Use To generated nearly One (1) Million views." DAF is Kirby and Kap G's new single that just released within the previous week and it has already captured the interests of six (6) thousand viewers. Kirby is produced by the Three (3) time Multiplatinum, Grammy Award winning and ASCAP Honoree producer Mexmanny. Mexmanny is known for his placements with Rhianna, Wale and T.I just to name a few.

His catchy lyrics and hip hop melodies were inspired by recording artist and producer The Dream and of course his producer, lyricist and musical coach Mexmanny.

According to his female fans, "Kirby's music stands out and it's refreshing." Kirby is currently working on his album, and he has already dropped an EPK, started touring, and is working toward building a strong social media following.

